

Week of Respect 2018

(October 1st - 5th)

Dear Parents/Guardians:

As part of the New Jersey Week of Respect, Atco Elementary, Thomas Richards, and Waterford Elementary students will be learning about respecting themselves and others. In addition to our new Social and Emotional program, Sanford Harmony, the Week of Respect will include special dress up days. Please take the time to speak with your child about respecting themselves, and others as well as help them dress appropriately each day during our Week of Respect!

Monday 10/1 - "Being a Good Friend is No Sweat"- Wear sweats to school.

Tuesday 10/2 - "Follow your Dreams"- Wear pajamas to school.

Wednesday 10/3 - "Appreciate the Differences in People" -Wear mismatched clothes to school.

Thank-You-Thursday 10/4 - "Show gratitude and respect to a teacher, staff member, or parents/guardian" - Each student says thank-you to a teacher, staff member or parent/guardian in some way today (teacher choice).

Friday 10/5- "Team Up" for a safe and caring school!
Wear your favorite team shirt or jersey.
